DALLAS ISD STUDENT WINS NTTA ART CONTEST

PLANO, Texas, June 22, 2020 – The North Texas Tollway Authority (NTTA) has announced the winner of its safety awareness student art contest.

NTTA hosted the contest to increase awareness about safety for drivers and workers in road construction zones and about the dangers of distracted driving.

The competition was tough, with more than 50 compelling entries from students in grades 8 through 12. Only a few points separated the winner and several close competitors. NTTA thanks all students and teachers who shared their talent to promote driving safety.

Genesis M. of Booker T. Washington High School for the Performing and Visual Arts in Dallas ISD created the winning entry (below).

Genesis will have her work featured in NTTA newsletters, Customer Service Centers and on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram. All the student entries can be viewed online.
